CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

The CSC secretariat is committed to making positive, systemic and sustainable changes to the lives of street-involved children and young people through its members. To do so demands the contribution of each and every member in order to create a strong, efficient and effective network of organisations and individuals. We believe that membership of the Consortium for Street Children is a mutually beneficial partnership based on all parties recognising and fulfilling their responsibilities.

Organisations and individuals may be eligible for membership of the Consortium for Street Children providing they meet the following conditions and/or expectations:

- Be not-for-profit and non-governmental organisations
- Be registered with the appropriate regulatory body (where appropriate)
- Demonstrate, through its activities, a commitment to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Have, or be prepared to develop, a Child Protection Policy
- Be committed to equal opportunities (as outlined in CSC's equal opportunities policy)
- Operate with honesty, integrity and transparency
- Be committed to putting the rights of street involved children and young people at the top of the global development agenda
- Be active participants in the network and be committed to sharing resources, skills and building strategic relationships
- Agree to keep CSC informed about any changes and developments within your organisation
- Be proactive in promoting the active participation of street involved children and young people
- Pay promptly any sums due to CSC

The Trustees of the Consortium for Street Children reserve the rights to withhold membership, or to suspend or terminate current membership, if any of the above conditions are not adhered to, if subscriptions are unpaid.
